

Online Repeat Literacy Collaborative: Embedding Writing Instruction across the Post-Primary Curriculum

Harnessing Students' Motivation to Improve Writing Outcomes and Experiences

PDST Collaboratives offer teachers the time and space to come together and work collaboratively. They provide an opportunity to discuss ideas or issues arising from participants' experiences in the classroom.

This Literacy Collaborative will explore

- the value and purposes of writing in all subjects
- methodologies and strategies that support writing instruction and assessment across all subjects
- how students' motivation can be harnessed to improve writing experiences and outcomes

This Literacy Collaborative will provide participants with an opportunity to discuss and share

- their experiences of writing in their subject
- methodologies and strategies that support writing instruction and assessment

These online collaboratives are suitable for all Senior Cycle teachers, literacy link teachers, literacy teams and management. These Literacy Collaboratives will all take place online.
